LOCALS.

KINDLY give your attention to that unpaid account of yours at this office.

FOR sale or rent for school purposes the college at Hustonville, B. J. Pinkerton, Stanford.

We have a lot of hay that we will sell at 30 to 65c per 100. Apply at once. J. H. Baughman & Co.

OUR closing out sale of gente' shoes and furnishings will save you big money. Come and see. J. P. Jones.

A DEPTH of 80-odd feet has been reached in the Buffalo Oil Co.'s first well on E. T. Pence's farm. The Stanford Oil, Gas & Development Co. is still having trouble with well No. 2 on Frank McKinney's farm and slow progress is being made.

HARVESTING of wheat is on in earnest. The crop is distressingly light.

THE Somerset Journal's ginseng edition was a good one. Brer Campbell writes about ginseng like a veteran "sang" digger.

SPACE in the INTERIOR JOURNAL'S Crab Orchard and Hustonville fair daily is already being taken. Better speak early if you want an ad.

THE Central Oil, Gas & Mining Co. will shoot wells No. 3 and 4 on the Baughman farm about Saturday next. No. 5 well will be close to No. 1.

A GOOD picture of the main building of Crab Orchard Springs appeared in Saturday's Courier Journal. The cut was made from a photo by Miss Sa cray.

DR. ELIZABETH JACKSON, osteopathic physician of Mt. Vernon, will be at the "Springs Hotel," Crab Orchard, July 1st, for the practice of osteopathy.

SALE.—George S. Shelby will sell at auction on Thursday, July 24, two splendid Lincoln county farms, one containing 198 and the other 339 acres of land. See "ad."

TOM BRYANT, who got 18 months in the penitentiary for robbing the depot at London, was taken to Frankfort Friday by Sheriff Baughman. He was here for safekeeping.

THE Crab Orchard fair catalogue is in press at this office and will be out in a week or 10 days. The premiums and purses offered are exceedingly liberal and there is a ring for almost every kind of stock.

A SPECIAL train will be run from Lancaster to Louisville next Sunday by colored people. It will pass here at 6:50 A. M. and there will be attached a special car for white people. The fare for the round-trip is $1.50.

THE delinquent list has been ordered by the fiscal court to be printed in this paper. If your name appears in that list you can save yourself humiliation by paying County Clerk George B. Cooper the amount against you at once.

FAIR PRIVILEGES.—Sealed bids for the various privileges of the Crab Orchard Fair & Racing Association will be received up until 2 P. M. Thursday, July 10, 1902. Direct all communications to A. W. Buchanan, Secretary, Crab Orchard, Ky.

AS Mrs. E. W. Creighton and Miss Lucille Johnson, of Kingsville, were coming to town Friday afternoon their horse was knocked down by lightning and they were fearfully frightened. Fortunately they escaped injury. The horse was not badly hurt.

OIL.—A Monticello special says: Mayfield Well, No. 3, on the Davis farm, at Slickford, came in at 300 feet, producing 75 barrels. The Kentucky & Tennessee, No. 1, on the Hurt farm, came in at 1,000 feet, producing 100 barrels.

FRIENDS of County Clerk George B. Cooper want him to run for appellate clerk. There isn't a better equipped man for the office nor a cleverer gentleman in the State than "Thomp" Cooper, as he is affectionately called, but he is satisfied with his present office and doesn't ask to go higher for awhile any way.

THE Beaver Creek Oil & Gas Co. drilled in their No. 2 at Cooper, Wayne county, and had 23 feet of oil producing sand. This insures one of the best producing wells that has been drilled in the Beaver Creek sand. The company will shoot their wells at once and will no doubt get a production of 50 to 100 barrels daily. Persons who have not duplicated their stock can do so at once as the company expects to close their books July 1st.

A CONFERENCE was held Friday at Danville between H. B. Spencer, general manager of the Louisville-St. Louis lines of the Southern; Alex. P. Humphrey, and citizens of Danville, with a view to extending the Southern's line from Harrodsburg to Danville. A committee of citizens was appointed to examine into the question of right of way and to further confer with the railway officials. Messrs. J. S. Hocker, W. M. Bright, Harvey Helm and Mayor Florence, of this place, attended the meeting.

THE grand jury which adjourned last week indicted Charlie Stringer, Will Hiatt and Will Crutchfield, all white, and George Sandusky, colored, for breaking into and attempting to rob the Lincoln County National Bank in January last. Sheriff M. S. Baughman, armed with requisition papers, left for McLean county, Ill., where Hiatt and Crutchfield were working. He returned yesterday afternoon with them and they readily gave bond in $500 each. Sandusky was arrested yesterday morning and is in jail. He is anxious for an immediate trial. Stringer is said to be in the standing army and effort will at once be made to get him into the clutches of the law. The indictment is a surprise to many owing to the good standing of those charged with the ugly crime. It is hardly probable that their trial will be held at this term of court.

CARRIAGE FOR SALE.—In good repair and used only a year or two. Will sell cheap. Call at this office.

STRAYED.—Black spotted male hog weighing about 160 pounds. W. J. Holtzclaw, Gilberts Creek, Ky. 2t

THE books are ready and you are requested to call at once and get your tax receipt. M. S. Baughman, sheriff.

THE ice cream supper given by the ladies of the Hubble Christian church Saturday night, was a success in every particular. The receipts of the evening were $40.

THE bitching and feed privileges and the restaurant privileges of the Crab Orchard fair will be sold at Crab Orchard next Saturday afternoon, 2nd, at 3 o'clock. As the crowds daily are expected to run far up into the thousands, these privileges ought to bring good prices.

BOTTLING WHISKY.—Mr. A. C. Connett, an expert whisky bottler of Cincinnati, is with W. H. Traylor, the distiller, for the purpose of bottling some of his product. He is under contract to complete his work of 1,560 dozen bottles by July 1. Mr. Connett's bright little son, Frankie, is with him.

A BOOK agent called at this office the other day and after passing a few pleasant remarks began to unhook a little sack which was attached to the back of his vest and which was entirely hidden from view. This sack contained his sample book. "Why do you not carry your book in your hands and save the trouble and time of hanging it behind you?" we asked. "Oh," said he, "there is a feeling against book agents and nine-tenths of the people who would see me coming with my book would either leave their office or home or ask me to leave it. We try to get a person in a good humor before we let him know that we sell books."

THE Ninth Annual Elocutionary Contest given by E. H. Beazley at Walton's Opera House Friday evening last was like all of its predecessors—a success in every particular. The crowd was the largest in years and the splendid program of 34 hours was enjoyed from beginning to end. The clock tolled the solemn hour of midnight as Attorney Samuel T. Spalding was delivering the first prize, $25 in gold, to Miss Lillian Leavell, of Bryantsville, but who represented Hamilton College, and notwithstanding the late hour no restlessness was shown by the crowd which had assembled by 8:30. Miss Leavell's subject was "Lily Servosess Ride" and that she did justice to it and credit to herself is shown in the fact that she won first honors over a field of 11. Miss Cora Dodge, of Louisville, won the second prize, $10 in gold. Her subject was "The Sioux Chief's Daughter." Messrs. E. M. McCormack, of Shepherdsville, and R. W. Miller, of Richmond, were associated with Mr. Spalding as judges and they did their work as satisfactorily as could be expected, as it is not on record where the opinion of the judges suited all of the contestants and their friends. All of the young ladies who took part did well and they have the satisfaction of knowing they acquitted themselves creditably if all did not receive prizes. Following is the program which was so universally enjoyed:

Address, L. R. Hughes, chairman; Music; Miss Cora E. Dodge, Louisville High School, "The Sioux Chief's Daughter;" Vocal Quartette, Jos. Ireland, T. D. Rane, Mrs. J. H. Turner, Miss Lillian Bybee; Miss Jennie Houtchings, Harrodsburg Graded School, "The Charlot Race;" Instrumental Duet, Mrs. J. H. Turner, Mrs. G. T. Grinstead; Miss Florence Burnside, Lancaster, "Alemeda;" Vocal Solo, Miss Jennie Lynn; Miss Maude Miller Pope, Danville, "Buyin' a Feller;" Violin Solo, Miss Mary Hundley; Miss Polly Traylor, Stanford, "Woman's Rights;" Vocal Solo, Mrs. J. H. Turner; Miss Sara Daniels, Paris, "As the Moon Rose;" Vocal Quartette, Joseph Ireland, T. D. Rane, Miss Lillian Bybee, Mrs. J. H. Turner; Miss Ruby Hackney, London, "The Confessional;" Vocal Solo, Miss Dot Camnitz; Miss Lillian B. Leavell, Hamilton College, "Lily Servosess Ride;" Vocal Duet, Mrs. J. H. Turner and Miss Lillian Bybee; Miss Myra Walker, Flemingsburg, "Sister and I;" Music; Miss Anna Darst, Stanford, "Zib, the Mountain Guide;" Music; Miss Myrtle Britton, Harrodsburg, "Perdita, the Marble Statue." The music, both vocal and instrumental, was of a very high order and it was a pleasing portion of the program.

Mr. L. R. Hughes, as chairman, filled the bill excellently. His timely and well-worded address of welcome was received with prolonged applause. The stage, which had been decorated under the supervision of Mrs. W. W. Hays, was as pretty as a picture and the artistic work of that lady and her assistants was complimented by many.

Rev. W. E. Arnold's health would not permit him to take part in the vocal quartettes, but Mr. Joseph Ireland, of Danville, proved a most excellent substitute.

Mr. Beazley announces his 10th annual contest for the third Friday evening in June, 1903. He is being congratulated for the excellency of the entertainments he always gives.

LIBERTY FAIR.—The officers of the Liberty Fair have decided to hold their annual exhibition on Aug. 27, 28 and 29.

WE have a good second hand Deering binder, Deering mower and rake for sale cheap. J. H. Baughman & Co.

THE best stock of Tissues, Lawns, Dimities, Organdies, Applique Laces, and all Summer Goods will be found at John P. Jones'.

BIG crowd at Severance's auction Monday. Auction again Wednesday afternoon. Comfortable seats, ice water, a good time and bargains.

NOTHING worth mentioning has been done in circuit court since our last. The case of Jim Dawson, colored, for killing his wife, was set for yesterday, but continued until tomorrow.

CRAB ORCHARD SPRINGS' OPENING BALL.—As predicted last summer when the largest crowd in 10 years spent the heated term at Crab Orchard, the people began flocking hither weeks in advance of the formal opening on Friday last, so that there were 10 times as many regular guests registered at this year's opening as were there one year ago. All of which, in meaning clear and language plain, goes to prove that the people of Kentucky would gladly make this the Mecca of their summer travels were it only properly managed. The necessity for an entire reorganization became apparent to the stockholders two years ago and the wisdom of their selection of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Willis, of Richmond, for managers, has been thrice vindicated. Everything is in tip top shape; there is plenty, proficiency, politeness, pleasure, profit and perfection at Crab Orchard Springs. Hence, hitherto devotees of Terpsichore wended their way last Friday, and from late supper until early breakfast their tripping feet kept rhythmic measure to the matchless music of Gus Wehrley's Louisville orchestra, the favorite of every dancing assembly in Kentucky. Stanford sent her beautiful women and gallant men and Lancaster, Danville, Richmond, Lebanon, Louisville and Lexington sent their quota of the fair and brave and all went merry as a marriage bell. The great dining room alone could scarcely contain the guests and visitors. Its floor was polished so that the lights reflected therefrom like stars mirrored on the bosom of a placid lake. The costuming of the ladies was unusually beautiful and for once in the world's history of summer resorts there was one or more beaux for every belle. The feature of the occasion aside from its universally acknowledged success, was the presence of Prof. Allen De Cour Mueller, master of ceremonies. It is his function to lead the dances, in strict young and old in the dance, engineer entertainments, teach horseback riding, fencing, physical culture, etc. He will arrange a ball for every Friday evening and arrange weekly entertainments by the guests, such as fancy dances, German, cake walks, recitals, amateur theatricals, etc. Prof. Mueller has had years of experience in public entertaining, is a gentleman of affable, polite manners, with highest recommendations from leading Kentuckians here and in Washington City. But the table—perfect, the waters health-giving, the shade dense and cool, the rooms clean and airy, the drives long, McDamized, boating, fishing, courting and a jolly good time for young and old; health for the sickly, rest for the weary, etc. etc.

HOW HOT HELL IS.—A colored brother was expounding the gospel to his flock, and after vividly describing the place of damned, concluded the service with the following: "Bredren, I has been asked how hot is hell, and I would say dat if you took all de wood in New York State, and all de coal in Pennsylvania and piled em all in a heap, and poured on dat all de fire in de world and set it on fire, and den took a man out of hell and put him into dat burdin' mass he would freeze to death. Dat's how hot hell is."

Valuable Property For Sale.

My residence on Danville Avenue and two storehouses on Main street, opposite court house, Stanford, Ky., for sale. Residence is a two-story brick with 10 rooms. The storehouses are brick, with nice rooms over them, one storeroom occupied by W. B. McRoberts as a drug store and the other by Wm. Severance for dry goods. Address J. B. Owsley, Stanford, Ky.

PUBLIC SALE.

ON THURSDAY, JULY 24, 1902, if not sold privately, I will offer for sale at public auction my two farms located and described as follows: First farm, of 198 acres located on the Danville and Hustonville pike, 2 miles south of Shelby City. This is a nice tract of land, desirably located and convenient to schools, postoffice and railroad; has a nice 7-room cottage, large stock barn and a dozen or more necessary outbuildings all in good repair. The location is high, dry and healthy, the fencing is all in good condition. The farm is well watered by Knob Lick Creek. Second farm consists of 330 acres more or less and is widely known in this and adjoining counties as the old Levi Hubble farm. This is a fine tract of land, mostly in grass. The buildings consist of a nice 4-room cottage, a large and commodious stock barn and numerous outbuildings all of which are comparatively new. This farm is also watered by Knob Lick creek, a never failing stream. There is an abundance of various kinds of fruit and berry trees. The fencing is in good condition. Terms of sale will be 1/3 cash and balance in one, two or three years, to suit the purchaser. The smaller place will be sold first on the premises, sale beginning at 9:30 A. M. Further information can be had by calling on addressing—N. K. Tunis, Danville, Ky., or Jas. D. Shelby, Junction City, Ky. GEO. S. SHELBY, Poncha, Oklahoma.
